Missions Moment

Dave and Judy Wright reported in an April 1 e-mail that they are back amongst the Mungen people after their annual conference. They have come back challenged to see believers actively engaged with God's word and the life of Christ within them. This can be the difference between becoming a mature Christian or not.

They also continue to fight a strong spiritual battle against the spirit indwelt shaman that scares many people away from their church plant. They ask for special prayers for this battle as they move towards another evangelical teaching for the Mungen people.

Also they are looking for people to type up English-Pidgen translations of their material from very clear penmanship (Pidgen is 60% English already). Another need is a source for good quality color pictures that are copyright free for use in publishing 5 world geography books for their literacy class as well as a world religions book and other charts showing creation. Please contact Dave at dave.wright@ntm.org
