Missions Moment

Gospel for Asia

Gospel for Asia Compassion Services teams completed 31 houses for victims of Cyclone Phailin and are currently constructing 119 more. The homes are due to be finished by July 15 as part of Gospel for Asia's goal to rebuild 300 houses in 2014.

Clean Water Through Jesus Wells

"Almost all rivers are dry right now," shared one Gospel for Asia worker, Daniel. But the water shortage in his village of Andhra Pradesh, India, was just beginning. "The real drought will come in the summer days...We have to wait almost six and a half months for the rain to come."

Not far away, Gospel for Asia Pastor Layak spoke of the water shortage his people faced." In the summer especially, the people here would bring water from the other villages," he says. "The nearest village is at least four miles away."

The Lord has used Jesus Wells profoundly. The water is freely offered to all, regardless of their religious background. But His love, demonstrated so clearly through the Jesus Well, makes such an impression on the people's hearts that many choose to follow Him.
